“Journals are at the heart of academic publishing and we are proud to support the international social sciences community with our range of prestigious, critical and engaging titles. The continued development of Bristol University Press means we are building a coherent and influential list of not-for-profit journals with real world as well as academic impact.”

JULIA MORTIMER, JOURNALS DIRECTOR

Our journals programme continues to go from strength to strength, with the list growing substantially in recent years. We now publish 18 titles across the social sciences, many of them interdisciplinary in focus. We are delighted that Policy & Politics had its highest ever Impact Factor in the Journal Citation Reports and that our newer journals, Emotions and Society, the Journal of Psychosocial Studies and the Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice have been accepted into Scopus. This year we are also celebrating the 10th Anniversary for Families, Relationships and Societies.

We are excited to announce the call for papers for our first fully Open Access title: Global Social Challenges Journal. This mission driven journal will address the most urgent complexities of global social challenges by drawing together accessible international scholarship across the disciplines.

Our portfolio is set grow even further in 2022 with the launch of Global Political Economy. Other titles are in development and we are planning a number of Open Access initiatives and special issues in response to COVID-19.

Publish with us

Journals are at the heart of academic publishing and we are proud to support the international social sciences community with our range of prestigious, critical and engaging titles.

As a not-for-profit publisher, we share many of the same values as the organisations and individuals we work with and we pride ourselves in our collaborative ethos and commitment to quality.

Our journals respond to some of the most pressing global social challenges that our societies face and, through cutting-edge research, aim to effect positive social impact.

Many of our journals are interdisciplinary and aim to encourage debate across academic boundaries. Our expansive journals list covers a broad range of social science disciplines, including Business and Management, Economics and Society, Law, Sociology, Politics and International Relations and Social Work.

Global Social Challenges Journal

NON-PROFIT, OPEN ACCESS
PUBLISHING FOR CHANGE

Bristol University Press is delighted to announce its first fully open access journal.

"I'm proud to see Bristol University Press launching this important new journal, which promises to address the most urgent complexities of global social challenges by drawing together accessible international scholarship across the disciplines to inform policy and practice."

PROFESSOR JUDITH SQUIRES, DEPUTY VICE-CHANCELLOR AND PROVOST, UNIVERSITY OF BRISTOL

How can we reimagine society in an era of climate change, pandemic, hunger, poverty, questions of racial, ethnic and gender justice and other pressing global societal challenges? Significant threats and dangers lie ahead of us, but so do opportunities, as new ways of being, thinking and doing emerge. This new, fully open access journal aims to facilitate thinking about these positive new trajectories and to become the journal of choice to address the complexities of global social challenges across disciplines and fields.

It will be the first such journal to be based in the social sciences while also engaging with research from humanities, arts and STEM. Including marginalised, minority and indigenous world views, the journal will be an important home for research that contributes to the creation of alternative futures that acknowledge past injustices and are socially and environmentally just and sustaining.

Published in association with the Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies.

SLLS Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies

“Longitudinal and Life Course Studies provides a much-needed outlet for high quality interdisciplinary research on the life course. No other journal offers life course researchers as wide a range of disciplines, topics, and methods.”

MARY CLARE LENNON, CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK, USA

Longitudinal and Life Course Studies (LLCS) is a peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the needs of researchers studying the life course and using longitudinal methods at the interfaces of social, developmental and health sciences. It fosters cross-disciplinary and international endeavours and promotes the creation and exploitation of longitudinal data resources as well as their application to policy issues.

As the journal of the Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies (SLLS) it provides an opportunity for scholars at all stages of their careers to publish work crossing disciplinary boundaries which is often beyond the scope of more conventional, single-field journals.

Global Discourse:

An Interdisciplinary Journal of Current Affairs

Volume 12 | 2022, 4 issues

Editor: Matthew Johnson, Lancaster University, UK

Deputy Editors: Shannon Brincat, University of the Sunshine Coast, Australia and Simon Mabon, Lancaster
 University, UK

North American Consultative Editor: Debra L. DeLaet, Drake
 University, US

"In the future the most transformative research and scholarship is likely to occur at the nexus or intersection between traditional disciplines and professional boundaries. Global Discourse is arguably the world-leading journal for provoking debates, connecting scholars and redefining how critical social challenges are framed and understood. It is a journal that is shaping the future rather than being stuck in the past."

MATTHEW FLINDERS IS PROFESSOR OF POLITICS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD, UK AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE POLITICAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION, UK.

Global Discourse is an interdisciplinary, problem-oriented journal of applied contemporary thought operating at the intersection of politics, international relations, sociology and social policy. The Journal's scope is broad, encouraging interrogation of current affairs with regard to core questions of distributive justice, wellbeing, cultural diversity, autonomy, sovereignty, security and recognition.

All issues are themed and aimed at addressing pressing issues as they emerge. Rejecting the notion that publication is the final stage in the research process, Global Discourse seeks to foster discussion and debate between often artificially isolated disciplines and paradigms, with responses to articles encouraged and conversations continued across issues.

Emotions and Society

Volume 4 | 2022, 3 issues

Editors-in-Chief: Mary Holmes, University of Edinburgh, UK; Åsa Wettergren, Gothenburg University, Sweden

Co-Editor: Nathan Manning, University of Adelaide, Australia

"A very valuable addition to sociology and the study of society... edited by a highly qualified team it has already attracted ground breaking articles on the various interactions and relationships between emotions, individuals and their societies."

BENET DAVETIAN, UNIVERSITY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, CANADA

Emotions and Society aims to publish high-quality, original peer-reviewed articles which advance theoretical and empirical understanding of emotions in social life. It is associated with the European Sociological Association (ESA) Research Network on the Sociology of Emotions and seeks submissions from a wide range of international authors writing in this area. The sociology of emotions has developed unique perspectives on emotions that attend to their social construction and the ways in which they are embedded in social structures and inhere in social processes.

The Journal seeks to expand the largely unexhausted potential for developing innovative approaches not only to emotions per se, but to the social generally. All methodological approaches to studying emotions are welcome, but they should demonstrate rigour and be framed in ways that will be of interest to sociologically inclined scholars.

The Journal will publish 3 issues per year from 2022.

Online ISSN: 1478-6737
Frequency: March, July and October

Regional Editors: Matthew H. Bowker, Medaille College, USA and Steffen Krueger, University of Oslo, Norway

Published in association with The Association for Psychosocial Studies

"A much needed place to animate and inspire others in the field of psychosocial research and writing – a plenum of innovative ideas about clinical and critical theory, contemporary hermeneutics, and social philosophy."

CLAUDE BARBRE, CHICAGO SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY, USA

The Journal of Psychosocial Studies publishes work that falls within the broad transdisciplinary area of Psychosocial Studies, defined by a commitment to understanding the significance of the links between internal and external worlds. Psychosocial Studies draws on a range of disciplines to explore the interactive relationships between self, culture and society.

As the adopted journal of The Association for Psychosocial Studies (APS) it especially seeks to promote work that is interdisciplinary and considers issues of practice. The Journal of Psychosocial Studies provides space for research and writing that crosses the traditional boundaries between disciplines in the social sciences, humanities and the arts.

European Journal of Politics and Gender

Volume 5 | 2022, 3 issues

NOW INDEXED IN SCOPUS

Lead Editors: Jessica Fortin-Rittberger, University of Salzburg, Austria, Khursheed Wadia, University of Warwick, UK

Associate Editors: Phillip M. Ayoub, Occidental College, US, Althea-Maria Rivas, SOAS, University of London, UK, Emily St Denny, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Consulting Editors: Isabelle Engeli, University of Exeter, UK, Liza Mügge, University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands

“Gender is everywhere in politics, but gender analysis is not. This much needed international journal is led by an outstanding group of gender scholars with a range of political specialties and perspectives. This new journal will soon be a must read!”

MYRA MARX FERREE, ALICE H. COOK, UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON, USA

The European Journal of Politics and Gender (EJPG) is a peer-reviewed journal that publishes international, cutting-edge research in the broad field of politics and gender. EJPG is endorsed by the Gender and Politics Standing Group of the European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR).

EJPG is firmly embedded in global politics and gender scholarship, and its scope is not limited to Europe. EJPG aims to advance gender and politics research in all its diversity. To this end it publishes articles in the wide field of gender and politics, including a variety of geographical and thematic foci, methods and epistemological traditions.

Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice

Volume 37 | 2022, 2 issues

NOW INDEXED IN SCOPUS

Founding Editor: Domenico da Empoli (1941-2016)

Editor in Chief: Emma Galli, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy

Editor: Giampaolo Garzarelli, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy, IPEG University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa

Advisory Editor: Stefano da Empoli, Roma Tre University, Italy

“New technology and dynamic editorial talent, mark both the return of the Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice and a significant milestone in the history of transoceanic cooperation between scholars of Public Finance and Public Choice.”

J.R. CLARK, THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE AT CHATTANOOGA, USA

The Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice (JPFPC) was founded in 1983 by Professor Domenico da Empoli in the spirit of the Italian discipline of Scienza delle finanze. According to this approach, economic analysis should include individual motivations in non-market settings, political institutions, and collective decision-making.

Relaunched in 2018 in partnership with Bristol University Press, JPFPC is unique in the international landscape of public economics journals because it is committed to explicitly advancing knowledge in both public finance and public choice, reflecting an inclusive approach.

Policy & Politics

Advancing knowledge in public and social policy

Volume 50 | 2022, 4 issues

Impact Factor: 3.75

Editors: Oscar Berglund, University of Bristol, UK,
Claire A. Dunlop, University of Exeter, UK and
Chris Weible, University of Colorado, USA

“Brings into focus two subjects that should be studied together. It provides a platform for informed, reflective and rigorously evidenced research and does so in a way that addresses issues that matter.”

GERRY STOKER, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHAMPTON, UK AND UNIVERSITY OF CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA

Policy & Politics is a world-leading journal that provides the primary outlet for scholars and reflexive practitioners to engage with the most pressing governance challenges inhibiting the continued advancement in the study of public policy and its practice. These challenges span the globe and link communities in a common struggle to realise and sustain human dignity and quality of life for all.

Policy & Politics serves scholars seeking an outlet that accepts these challenges and strives to overcome them. Three principles guide the journal: (1) comprehensive coverage of public policy, politics and social issues; (2) inclusivity in research approaches; and (3) relevance for science and practice.

Now in the Journal Citation Report's top 20 journals in Public Administration.

Evidence & Policy

A journal of research, debate and practice

Volume 18 | 2022, 4 issues

Impact Factor: 1.836

Founding Editors: Ken Young (1943–2019)
and Annette Boaz, Kingston University

Editors-in-Chief: Katherine Smith, University of Strathclyde, UK and Mark Pearson, Hull York Medical School, UK

“Evidence-based policy is the watchword today in many countries and with many international organizations. This journal is the place to explore its many meanings, how it is operationalized and how it works. A journal worth reading!”

PROFESSOR TOM COOK, NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, USA

Evidence & Policy is the first peer-reviewed journal dedicated to comprehensive and critical assessment of the relationship between researchers and the evidence they produce and the concerns of policy makers and practitioners.

International in scope and interdisciplinary in focus, it addresses the needs of those who develop public policies, provide public services, provide the research base for evaluation and development across a wide range of social and public policy issues and those who are working to connect the two, such as knowledge brokers.

It provides cutting-edge research related to criminal justice, employment and welfare, education, environmental protection, finance, health, housing, international development, social care, and transport.

As well as more traditional research articles, the journal includes contemporary debate pieces and articles from practice and book reviews.

Journal of Poverty and Social Justice

Volume 30 | 2022, 3 issues

Impact Factor: 0.83

Outgoing editors: Rod Hick, Cardiff University, UK,
Gill Main, University of Leeds, UK

Incoming editors: Joanna Mack, The Open University, UK
and Marco Pomati, Cardiff University, UK

"The Journal of Poverty and Social Justice is clearly one of the best in the field, as I learned in preparing for my visit to the UK as UN Special Rapporteur on extreme poverty and human rights."

PHILIP ALSTON FORMER UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON EXTREME POVERTY AND HUMAN RIGHTS, NYU LAW SCHOOL, USA

Journal of Poverty and Social Justice provides an internationally unique forum for leading research on the themes of poverty and social justice.

Focusing on poverty and social exclusion, the journal explores links with social security (including pensions and tax credits), employment, area regeneration, housing, health, education and criminal justice, ethnicity, gender, disability and other social inequalities as they relate to social justice.

The Journal encompasses an original and exciting mix of scholarly research articles and lively policy and practice-oriented discussions of topical questions.

Interdisciplinary and international in scope, the journal is essential reading for academics, students, policy-makers and practitioners interested in poverty, social security, welfare and justice.

The Journal of Poverty and Social Justice welcomes submissions from those working in these areas across the globe. All research articles are peer-reviewed.

Critical and Radical Social Work

Volume 10 | 2022, 3 issues

Editor in Chief: Michael Lavalette, Liverpool Hope University, UK

Deputy Editors: Dimitra-Dora Teloni, University of West Attica, Greece, Charlotte Williams, Bangor University, UK

Critical and Radical Social Work: An international journal is an exciting journal that promotes debate and scholarship around a range of engaged social work themes.

The journal publishes papers which seek to analyse and respond to the latest issues in the field, such as the impact of global neo-liberalism on social welfare, austerity and social work, social work and social movements and the ways that social work intersects with inequality and oppression.

It welcomes contributions that consider and question themes relating to the definition of social work and social work professionalism, that look at ways in which organic and 'indigenous' practice can expand concepts of the social work project and that consider alternative and radical histories of social work activity.

As a truly international journal it actively encourages contributions from academics, scholars and practitioners from across the global village.

Print ISSN: 2398-6808

Online ISSN: 2398-6816

Frequency: February, June and October

The Journal of Gender-Based Violence (JGBV), is the first international journal based in Europe to show case the work of scholars across disciplinary and topic boundaries, and from a range of methodologies.

The journal acknowledges both the breadth of gender-based violence (GBV) and its links to gendered inequalities. It aims to continue to document the voices and experiences of victims and survivors of GBV, to publish work regarding those who perpetrate GBV and of the varied and complex social structures, inequalities and gender norms through which GBV is produced and sustained.

The journal recognises the intersection of gender with other identities and power relations, such as ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, faith, disability and economic status.

The Journal of Gender-Based Violence is published by Policy Press on behalf of the Centre for Gender and Violence Research at the University of Bristol.

Policy Press Scholarship Online

"What a wonderful resource! Nice layout and ready access to chapters and descriptions. So many tempting books to purchase or access via library subscription."

ROS BURNETT, UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

Policy Press Scholarship Online (PPSO) is our digital monograph collection, in partnership with Oxford University Press. The collection provides access to over 600 scholarly titles in a variety of subject areas, including Sociology, Law, Criminology, Business and Management, Politics and International Relations, Social Work, Public Health and Epidemiology. This collection of high-quality academic monographs is an essential research resource for students and academics alike.

PPSO streamlines the research process by making disparately published scholarship easily accessible, highly discoverable, and fully cross-searchable via one online platform. PPSO greatly enhances the ability for Policy Press' scholarly publishing to be found and used by academics globally.

Benefits for academics, researchers and libraries:

- Filter results to view your subject specialisations
- Save time with at-a-glance keywords and abstracts
- Quickly build bibliographies with automatic export citations
- Save links to favourite books, chapters and searches
- Use and share content in multiple formats
- Readability, functional, and ease-of-use.
